MR. C. C. STEARNS :—

Dear Sir:— I derived much pleasure from the rendition of your Mass, produced for the first time at our church on Easter Sunday. As a composition, it combines many excellent points and striking passages, with (what is lost sight of in many similar compositions) great simplicity. We want Masses adapted to our choirs, and easily singable. There should also, as in everything else, be a fitness of things in their different parts—the Kyrie prayerful, the Gloria moderately playful, the Credo majestic, the Sanctus and Agnus devotional. There is much of success in your Mass, considered under all these points, and I offer you my congratulations.

Yours,

JNO. J. POWER, Pastor ST. ANNE'S.

WORCESTER, April 14, 1869.

WORCESTER, April 2, 1869.

MR. C. C. STEARNS :—

Dear Sir:— I am more than pleased with your new Mass in D, the score of which you so kindly furnished me for use on Easter Sunday. I consider it one of the finest and most useful Masses I have ever seen, and I know not which to commend the most, its sweetness and finish as a musical work, or its perfect adaptness to the use of the Catholic Church. The different movements, especially the "Kyrie," "Sanctus," and "Benedictus," are of the exact length—a great failing in many works of the kind, and neither keep the celebrant waiting, nor leave an unfilled silence in the service. The Mass is effective and easy, and my choir were unflagging in their interest while rehearsing it, and like it more and more on better acquaintance. I feel sure that wherever used, it will be a favorite, and should be in the library of every choir in the country. I shall recommend it wherever I have opportunity.

Yours Truly,

JAS. R. PHELPS,
Organist at St. Anne's Church.

MR. C. C. STEARNS :—

Dear Sir:— Having heard your Mass in D, on Easter Sunday last, performed at St. Anne's Church, and examined the manuscript, allow me to congratulate you on your complete success in contributing to our church so valuable a composition, it being of moderate difficulty, at the same time so purely religious, chaste, and pleasing in character, that it cannot fail to hold a prominent place in all Catholic choirs. We await anxiously for its publication.

Yours Very Respectfully,

GEORGE P. BURT,
Organist and Prof. Music at the College of the Holy Cross.

WORCESTER, April 16, 1869.

WORCESTER, April 17, 1869.

MR. C. C. STEARNS :—

Dear Sir:— Having heard your Second Mass in D, on three occasions, allow me to congratulate you on your success in composing a Mass which is especially adapted for the service of the Catholic Church. The music is exceedingly beautiful and effective, not difficult of execution. I cheerfully recommend it to all Catholic choirs.

Yours Truly,

MAURICE A. POWER,
Director of St. John's Choir, Worcester, Mass.

WORCESTER, Mass., April, 1869.

MR. STEARNS :—

Dear Sir:— Having had the pleasure of singing the Tenor Solos at the first performance of your New Mass in D, at St. Anne's on Easter Sunday, I am prepared to say that I regard it a work of much merit, and well adapted to either the Catholic or Protestant services. The Choruses are brilliant, and the Solos are particularly charming and effective. I hope you will publish the Mass without delay.

Truly Yours,

G. W. INGALLS.
